

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

The village of Morrisville has purchased a chemical fire engine to be used in one section of the village.

Sinclair Barlow and his infant son died at their home in Newport Friday afternoon and Mrs. Barlow is very ill.

A Greensboro farmer raised a potato this summer which is exactly in the shape of a dog sitting on his hind legs, and the freak is on exhibition in a St. Johnsbury store window.

Among the deaths in Burlington last week from influenza was that of DeWitt C. Kring, whose wife was accidentally suffocated by gas a few weeks ago.

Vernon F. Ackley, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Ackley of Rutland, has been promoted from first-class private to corporal. Corp. Ackley has been in France a year, a member of Co. C, 102d machine gun battalion, 20th division.

Miss Vera Barstow, a celebrated violinist, who is a frequent visitor in St. Albans, has arrived in France, where she was sent by the Little Theatre league of New York to play for the American boys.

Rev. William H. Spence, at one time pastor of a church in Rutland, has become pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church in Salem, Mass.

The influenza epidemic in St. Johnsbury is now believed to be at its crest, as fewer new cases are being reported daily. St. Johnsbury has had 2,600 cases of the disease.

Three hundred new cases of influenza developed in Burlington Saturday and Sunday, and physicians attributed the increased number to house-to-house visits, which they are trying to stop, unless those going are caring for the sick.

Harry Falloon, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Falloon of Rutland, was struck in the cheek by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of a playmate Sunday, but his condition is not considered dangerous. The bullet has been removed.

U. S. McNally appeared in Rutland city court Saturday on the charge of trapping skunks out of season. The season did not open on the animals until Oct. 20, but several skunk skins were found in the McNally barn in East Pittsford previous to that day.

Pvt. Charles Collette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Collette of Orwell, died Oct. 16 at Fort McHenry, Baltimore, Md., of pneumonia, following influenza. He was 22 years old and entrained for military service July 5 of this year.

Attorney W. H. Preston of Fair Haven, who has a law office in Rutland, and Mrs. Preston have received word of the death of their son, Sgt. Gordon W. Preston of Co. A, 57th Pioneer Infantry, Oct. 6, of pneumonia. Death occurred on the transport Leviathan, which sailed from the United States Sept. 28. The body was sent back to Hoboken, N. J., on another transport.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grignon observed their golden wedding anniversary Saturday at their home in Bellows Falls. Mr. Grignon was born in St. Albans in 1846 and his wife in St. Albans, Vt., in 1848. Mr. Grignon has been employed as a fireman in Bellows Falls for 30 years. Eleven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Grignon, eight of whom are living. There are 28 grandchildren living, 12 having died in infancy.

SAVE YOURSELF FROM INFLUENZA

If you are "run down" or out of condition, if sluggish bowels have allowed poisonous impurities to accumulate in your system you are certain to suffer severely with the grip. Dr. True's Elixir, the famous household remedy of 67 years' reputation, will ward off the grip entirely or make an attack light and easily thrown off. Why? Because Dr. True's Elixir is a vegetable tonic that puts the system in good condition, prevents and relieves constipation, stimulates the appetite and strengthens the digestive powers. It can do no harm because it contains no mineral drugs. All purely vegetable. A tonic—not a stimulant. No reaction. Ask your druggist for it, or write Dr. J. F. True & Co., Auburn, Me.—Adv.

arrested between Benson and Fair Haven late Sunday night by a Rutland deputy sheriff. He has been taken to Burlington and turned over to the authorities at Fort Ethan Allen. He originally enlisted with Co. E, which was formed at Glens Falls, N. Y., and he is alleged to have deserted from Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C., last August. Steele has been wanted by the government officials some time and only a short time ago he escaped from several civil officers in a New York state town. He did not put up any fight when arrested.

Pvt. Leo W. Edward Downing, previously reported missing in action, is now reported by the war department as having returned to duty.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Connor of Wells River was badly burned Saturday by overturning the contents of a percolator of hot coffee.

Lieut. Robert O. Blood of Wells River has been cited for marked gallantry and meritorious service during the advance of his division against the enemy from July 18 to 25, 1918, in the second battle of the Marne.

The body of C. C. Gilbert, son of Lyman Gilbert of Enosburg Falls, was brought from Allentown, Pa., his home, where he died, to Enosburg Falls for burial last week. Mr. Gilbert was associate editor of the Concrete Magazine.

Pvt. Norman Skeels of Milton, listed in a recent casualty report as dead of accident, is alive and doing well, being at Ellis Island recovering from wounds. His parents received a letter from him only Saturday. He is a member of Co. F, 58th Infantry. He was wounded in August.

Wednesday night Mrs. Lockwood, who lives at West Rupert, saw a light from her window. Going out to investigate she found a lighted torch in the leaves between the house and barn, which are but a few feet apart. Some one had thrown it in from the highway. A bundle of cloth was tied to the end of a stick about two feet long, which had been soaked in some inflammable substance, as the cloth had not burned much.

News has been received in St. Albans that Lieut. Paul Doolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doolin, who has been in a hospital in France for three weeks, is recovering in a rest camp in southwestern France. Lieutenant Doolin, who is an aviator, became suddenly ill the latter part of last month. He was taken to a hospital and upon examination it was discovered that something he had eaten contained ground glass. It is not known whether the glass was placed in the food by German prisoners or whether he ate candy containing it. Lieut. Doolin was to have made a flight over the German lines the first part of October.

BOLD ROBBERY IN RUTLAND.

Postoffice Assistant Held Up, Much Money, $1,200 in W. S. Stolen.

Rutland, Oct. 22.—Miss Agnes Leonard, assistant to the postmaster at Central Rutland, was robbed on the main street of the village and in the light of a full moon at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, the thief getting about $1,200 in negotiable war savings stamps, a considerable amount in postage stamps and some cash. Miss Leonard had the government funds in a bag and was transferring it from the store to Postmaster F. W. Byrne's home next door when a strange man suddenly appeared from a hatchway in the Byrne house and threw a coat over the woman's head. He overpowered her and she was unable to make any outcry until the man had disappeared. State Attorney C. V. Poulin and the sheriff department as well as a deputy United
